Improving the Home: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The home has always been a special place, but 2020 put that into focus as the pandemic completely altered how consumers use their homes. While the surge in DIY projects is unlikely to continue long term, category players have an opportunity to use the current momentum and the new appreciation ...

Household Packaging and Format Trends: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Homecare packaging is on the cusp of a renaissance. New materials and designs are driving improved ecommerce through lighter weight and more secure packaging, while simultaneously reducing the category’s environmental impact through reduced carbon footprints and easier recycling.

While consumers have historically paid little mind to homecare packaging, there is ...

Home Laundry Products: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“With consumers prioritizing cleanliness and disinfecting more than ever, COVID-19 has spurred short-term sales in the historically slow-moving home laundry category. Sustaining growth in the longer term remains challenging however, and brands will need to understand how consumers’ needs are changing during this critical time to develop new solutions to ...

Household Surface Cleaners: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“It is rare that household cleaning products have been deemed such a popular topic of conversation. Yet that is one of the outcomes of the COVID-19 health crisis that has maximized time spent at home and generated consumer enthusiasm toward cleaning and home hygiene. Growing safety and financial concerns, and ...

Pest Control and Repellents: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The pest control category has proven itself to be incredibly resilient. Despite mounting financial pressures due to COVID-19 and the subsequent recession, both the at-home and professional services segments are expecting modest growth over the next several years. That said, in addition to consumers traveling less and lowering the risk ...

Outdoor Cooking: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

"Prior to the pandemic, the outdoor cooking category benefitted from slow but stable growth, which was expected to continue. However, the COVID-19 pandemic and recession are altering that trajectory. While consumers look to limit their discretionary spending, extended periods of time at home will foster the desire to improve their ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

"The unpredictable pace of the spread of COVID-19 is worrying, but consumers have remained optimistic about their finances throughout this pandemic and the subsequent recession. Time will tell how deeply consumer finances will be affected, but right now, consumers are most definitely holding out hope for themselves, while their confidence ...

The Impact of COVID-19 on Household, Home Care and Personal Care - US

"While the future of the US and global economy remains unclear, we should not expect that the resolution of the COVID-19 pandemic will be a return to 2019 reality. Many players are understandably focused on reacting to short-term challenges and demands presented by the circumstances, such as meeting the consumer ...

The Natural Household Consumer: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

"Natural household products have been the fastest-growing segment of the household market. Yet the COVID-19 pandemic has given greater importance to mainstream disinfectants while increasing overall consumer engagement with the category. Both mainstream and natural brands have an opportunity to leverage this shift for future growth."
