

December 2014*Furniture Retailing - UK

“The biggest issue for furniture retailers is to create a compelling identity which consumers can relate to. Each company needs to be very clear about its own unique proposition and should continue to build on this image consistently when designing store interiors or conducting advertising campaigns. By enhancing their branding ...

November 2014*Supermarkets: More Than Just Food Retailing - UK

“Aldi and Lidl are wedded to the smaller-store, limited range, largely-own-brand offer. So there is limited scope for them to cater to shopper demand for a wider range or for more branded lines – and so to capture more main-shop customers.”

October 2014*Consumers and the Economic Outlook: Quarterly Update - UK

“The revival in confidence has stalled. Although the economy is picking up speed, the population as a whole isn’t feeling the benefit of the recovery. People are as likely to say that they feel worse off than they did a year ago as they are to say that their finances ...

Clothing Retailing - UK

“As consumers increasingly want more regularly updated clothes, it is becoming more important for retailers to find improved ways of dealing with the challenges of getting clothes to market at an ever quicker pace.”
