

March 2011

Buy-to-let Mortgages - UK

Taking into account recent developments and new business data, this report provides a comprehensive overview of the market and considers its prospects for further growth. Drawing on a range of information sources, including consumer survey findings and trade interviews, the report examines distribution trends, identifies the main players and their ...

February 2011

Investment Bonds - UK

Since its 2007 peak, the UK onshore bond market has been in decline, to the point where total sales in 2010 were three fifths down on the volume achieved in 2007. The sub-prime crisis and ensuing economic downturn were partly responsible for this fall, but a more detrimental factor was ...