

October 2006

Outbound Travel - US

This report covers travel taken outside of the U.S. states, with at least one night of paid-for accommodation. The analysis focuses mainly on commercial accommodation for hotels, motels and bed and breakfasts.

August 2006

Hotels and Accommodations - US

This report covers hotels, defined as collective accommodation establishments providing lodging and usually meals, entertainment and various personal services for the public. The $131 billion hotels industry in the U.S. has rebounded after faltering in 2001 and 2002. Rises in occupancy have allowed hoteliers to raise rates in 2004 ...