

March 2021Menswear - UK

“The menswear market has been hard hit by the COVID-19 outbreak as it has removed the main drivers for purchasing new clothes. Menswear specialists, in particular those specialising in formalwear, have suffered the most as men embrace more casual outfits. The long-term prospects are that the menswear market will return ...

Childrenswear - UK

“While COVID-19 has led to a big fall in appetite for fashion, childrenswear has been more resilient due to its shorter lifespan and as parents have prioritised spend on their kids over themselves. Looking forwards, there are opportunities for more sub-brands targeting the growing tween and teen markets, as there ...

Optical Goods Retailing - UK

“In the immediate aftermath of the COVID-19 outbreak in the UK, the optical goods and services market suffered large declines as stores were forced to close. This has led some chains to rethink their store positions as city centres and shopping centres remain quiet even with stores re-opened. Meanwhile, with ...
