

October 2021

Mechanical and Electrical Engineering - UK

“The combination of technological advances, Brexit, COVID-19 and the emerging policies surrounding net zero are all having a profound impact on the M&E sector. Accompanying these huge influences is a new government emphasis on infrastructure in an effort to stimulate the economy. The market is set for growth and at ...