

March 2010

Mortgages - UK

The property market is increasingly polarised between the 'haves' and the 'have-nots'. The proportion of mortgage holders has been steadily falling, as would-be first-time buyers find themselves shut out of the market, and older homeowners clear their mortgages.

January 2010

Travel Money - UK

This report covers the overall UK travel money market, as well as the individual sectors within the market, namely foreign-currency exchange/bureau de change, spending on credit and debit cards abroad, prepaid travel cards and travellers' cheques.