Flavor Innovation on the Menu - US

"Demand for flavor innovation on the menu is already high, and it's poised for continued future growth alongside the population growth of the most Adventurous Eaters: young and Hispanic consumers. Millennials in particular are hungry for less-common flavors and ingredients on the menu, spanning everything from sour flavors to seafood ...

Restaurant Breakfast and Brunch Trends - US

"Restaurant breakfast and brunch visitation is on the decline, driven by the proliferation of premium breakfast retail options coupled with consumers' lowered perceptions of breakfast as an important meal occasion. Operators should concentrate on expanding coffee beverages and nontraditional breakfast offerings including global flavors, snackable options and plant-based ingredients to ...

On-premise Restaurant Technology - US

"On-premise restaurant technology such as kiosks and tablets are offering operators multifaceted solutions to growing labor challenges and consumer demand for speedy foodservice; however, most consumers are still not very accepting of fully-automated restaurant concepts. Operators should lean into consumer-friendly tech solutions such as pre-ordering options and tableside payments for ...

Coffee and Tea on Premise - US

"Major coffee shop chains and third wave coffee shops have expanded consumer awareness and demand for premium roasts and specialty beverages, which are now especially popular with younger consumers. However, they face stiff competition from fast food restaurants, donut shops, c-stores and other casual restaurants that have expanded their offerings ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q3: A Look at Both Sides - US

"A lot of coverage has been given to the growing divide between political views in the US. While there may be cultural and moral differences that cause fundamental shifts in beliefs, some underlying concerns, specifically financial ones, are more similar than different. However, if a consumer's personal belief system aligns ...
