

February 2023B2B Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK, along with other Western economies, is grappling with a perfect storm caused by rocketing fuel prices following the conflict in Ukraine and the inflationary consequences of the post-COVID boom in demand. The sharp rise in inflation seen in 2022 has stimulated interest rate rises which in turn contribute ...

January 2023Commercial Borrowing - UK

“The current economic situation will mean that lenders will be more selective when undertaking borrowing agreements. Lenders are likely going to focus on profitable areas, meaning financial institutions need to identify the sectors they would like to target and focus on meeting the finance needs in these. However, they must ...
