

March 2020*Critical Illness Cover - UK

“Just as definitions are being simplified, new complexity is being added in the form of tiered products, life-stage boosters and later-life add-ons. While these innovations undoubtedly enhance the product, they also make it harder to compare policies. Renters, the self-employed, gig economy workers and women all remain under-protected and insurers ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK left the EU with consumers still expecting Brexit to have a negative overall effect, but with much more positive views than in previous months. The clarity provided by the General Election and delivery of Brexit, continued high employment and above-inflation wage rises, have combined to pushed Mintel’s consumer ...

February 2020*Travel Insurance - UK

“Mintel’s research shows that, when it comes to choosing a travel policy, a much greater proportion of people are swayed by price than important product features such as cover limits and excess levels. Moreover, many consumers assume that their policy will cover all eventualities, including an airline going bust and ...

Motor Insurance - UK

“The car insurance market experienced a turbulent 2019, with many providers posting a reduced income, and profit. Despite this there are positive signs for the market over the next five years. With greater clarification over the Ogden rate, providers will be more confident in their pricing strategies. Additionally, the move ...