

December 2010*Saving and Investing for Children
- UK

This report looks in detail at the children's savings and investment market, focusing primarily on how parents save on behalf of their children. The report looks at the key drivers of the market – many of which have been touched on above – and the challenges that providers face. The ...

November 2010*Savings and Investments
Intermediaries - UK

This report explores these issues and examines the impact of changing regulations, technology and market conditions on this sector of the advice market, by drawing on a range of trade, consumer and desk research. The report also presents the findings of Mintel's IFA survey, conducted by NMG.

Affluent Investing and Banking -
UK

This report provides an overview of the key developments in the affluent banking and investing industry. In addition to quantifying the size of the target wealth market, the report highlights the key economic and regulatory issues impacting the wider wealth management industry. The market size sections provide a detailed account ...