

March 2020Consumers and Online Financial Advice - UK

“Automation and the shift towards digitisation are making financial advice more accessible and affordable, a trend that is set to finally democratise the market. Consumers, particularly younger ones, are generally open to robo-advice services, and people are not against paying for these as long as cost-savings are passed on to ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK left the EU with consumers still expecting Brexit to have a negative overall effect, but with much more positive views than in previous months. The clarity provided by the General Election and delivery of Brexit, continued high employment and above-inflation wage rises, have combined to pushed Mintel’s consumer ...

February 2020Retirement Planning - UK

“More people are saving for retirement than ever before, but that doesn’t mean they’re saving enough. A transformation in how we live and work demands a fundamental rethink of how longer-term savings are designed, to ensure they remain relevant and realistic in preparing people for the future, whatever it may ...
