Retirement Planning - UK

“The retirement planning environment has so far held up well despite the challenges that the COVID-19 pandemic has placed on the market. Cost of living pressures pose a new challenge for the industry. With inflationary pressures expected to persist throughout 2022 and into 2023, consumers face tough decisions. More people ...

Mortgages - UK

“2021 was the strongest year for mortgage lending since the financial crisis, but 2022 is set to be more challenging. The rising cost of living is already feeding through into lower consumer confidence, which will increase reluctance to commit to major financial decisions, including buying or moving a house. Increases ...

Motor Insurance - UK

“Regulatory change marks a new era in the motor insurance market. Pricing and customer retention strategies will evolve throughout 2022 as insurers respond to the changes. Inflation poses a significant challenge for the market, causing claims costs and premiums to rise. Innovation demonstrates the opportunities for this market to enhance ...

Travel Money - UK

“Demand for travel money is set to soar this year as people take overseas holidays again in greater numbers. However, we won't see an immediate return to pre-pandemic levels. This is partly because of lingering COVID concerns and, more pertinently, the fact that the UK is facing one of the ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q1 - UK

“Even before the conflict in Ukraine, inflation had become the biggest concern for consumers, brands and the British economy for 2022. Households are set to endure the biggest squeeze on real incomes in decades, and the conflict in Ukraine will only add to existing inflationary pressures. This is seen in ...
