

November 2013

Irish Lifestyles - Ireland

In 2013, Ireland is slowly moving away from the economic downturn and consumer confidence is increasing. This report examines the health of both NI and RoI consumers, looking at physical health, financial health and indeed mental health and the factors that have led to the current state of each. With ...