Savory and Sweet Spreads - US

The $6.5 billion market for sweet and savory spreads faces significant limitations due to its near saturation, as over 90% of households use peanut butter or jam/jelly/preserves and over 80% use butter. Mintel's report both analyzes these challenges and identifies opportunities for growth. Report insights include:

Frozen Meals - US

With annual sales in the billions of dollars, frozen meals have come a long way from the so-called TV dinner era. They are no longer used solely by single white males and can now be found on many families' dinner tables. The category offers a variety of price points that ...

Spirits: The Market - US

In this report, the second part of a two-part report on spirits, Mintel takes an in-depth market-centric view of the market. The consumer-centric view is covered in Mintel's Spirits: The Consumer—U.S., August 2010.

Soup - Europe

Soup has a lot going for it. It is viewed both as a traditional staple, and also a modern convenience food, well suited to hectic modern day living. Recipes may be timeless classics; or they may be marketed as exotic, healthier and functional concoctions suited to the clued-up 21st century ...

Shelf-stable Meals and Meal Kits - US

This report explores the shelf stable meal and meal kits market. The three types of products in this report: complete packaged dinner mixes (53%), can/jar

Food and Drink - International

Carbonated Soft Drinks - Europe

This is a stable, recession-resistant market. Big brands have something of an unchallengeable institutional status. Thirst is basic, and the big alcoholic alternative, beer, is generally on long-term decline. Overall volume sales tend to expand, though more so in the less developed Eastern Europe markets, and not at all in ...

How are Ready Meals Targeting the Stay-at-home Consumer? - Ireland

In response to increasing demand for data concerning the dynamic economy and growth markets of Northern Ireland and The Republic of Ireland, Mintel has developed a series of reports covering a wide variety of sectors within both of these dynamic regions. Each one provides detailed coverage of key drivers as ...

Sandwiches, Subs, and Wraps - US

While a difficult economic environment has created a variety of challenges for sandwich shop operators, it is also clear that many consumers are seeking inexpensive restaurant dining options and sandwich shops have often been able to capitalize on this demand. Moreover, there is a kind of "health halo" around some ...

Coffee - US

The incidence and frequency of coffee use in the U.S. has remained very steady in recent years, which has contributed to relatively stable, moderate market growth. Indeed, while sales in many categories declined between 2008 and 2010—as millions of Americans sought ways save money in the face of recessionary ...

Private Label OTC Healthcare - US

While the recession has put a halt to sales growth in many large CPG product categories, overall sales of over-the-counter (OTC) remedies have continued to grow at a slow, steady pace over the last few years.

Food and Drink - International

Consumers are making greater efforts to be healthy and have greater access to information about the key foods they should be eating to stay healthy ...

Pub Visiting - UK

The consumer leisure market has changed beyond recognition, largely due to technology and how it has made the home environment more of a focus. This greater emphasis on spending time and entertaining at home has led to greater competition in the eating out market, particularly for the spending of the ...

Pub Catering - UK

The pub industry remains in a state of consolidation with many of the big brands in particular rationalising their estates in order to take advantage of acquisition opportunities in other areas of the market, with the main focus on the less volatile food-led sector of the market. Therefore expansion plans ...

Sugar and Gum Confectionery - Europe

The sugar and gum confectionery markets in the 'Big 5' European countries, namely France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the UK, as well as the rest of the Western Europe are mature, and present little opportunity for further volume growth. On the other hand, Eastern Europe and the Asia Pacific report ...

Bread, Bakery and Cakes - Europe

The European bakery products markets are large and mature. Penetration of bread is almost universal. In volume terms, continental European markets are segmented almost equally between bread, and between cakes and other baked goods.
