

November 2019Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“Brexit has been delayed again. The public faces a Christmas general election. And the economy narrowly avoided a recession in September. It is no wonder, then, that consumer confidence has taken a hit. However, financial well-being is holding up and the vast majority of people think they’ll be OK in ...

ISAs - UK

“Although certain aspects of the product need reworking, the LISA is the most promising of the new ISA products that have been introduced in recent years. Getting on to the housing ladder remains a key priority for young people and many will be eager to take full advantage of the ...

October 2019Innovation in the Retail
Investment Market - UK

“Innovation has a huge role to play in the democratisation of investments. Traditionally an old-fashioned world, consumer and provider perceptions towards automation in investing will be slow to change but a first step is to better communicate the strengths of robo-services when it comes to accessibility and affordability. Beyond technology ...
