

March 2011Babies' and Children's Personal Care Products - UK

- In order to grab parents' attention, manufacturers are increasingly focusing on introducing new products that are fun to use for babies' and children. Children's character-licensed toiletries are becoming increasingly common. Almost one in six parents buy toiletries for their baby or child which feature characters.
- Own label has grown ...

January 2011Oral Healthcare - UK

While the market has reached close to 100% penetration for basic items (eg toothpaste and toothbrushes) and is serviced by a comprehensive and wide-ranging product offer, there is still room for growth. There is an opportunity to upgrade the basic one-step brushing regimen to include a mouthwash and, for more ...

Beauty Retailing - UK

Beauty retailing is an innovative and dynamic market. But its structure is very different to a number of large non-food categories such as clothing, electricals and DIY where specialist retailers dominate. In beauty retailing non-specialists play a particularly important role too.
