Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The closer we got to the planned Brexit Day, the more worried people became about the impact it’d have on the UK’s economy. With the delay to Brexit, these concerns seem to have melted away. People are far more relaxed about what Brexit will mean for both their own finances

Carbonated Soft Drinks - UK

“The shrinking population of key younger consumers, enduring concerns around sugar, and growing spotlight on single-use plastic waste pose challenges for the category going forward. The strong alcohol reduction trend meanwhile opens up new opportunities for CSDs to target. With few people seeing CSDs as a good alternative to alcoholic ...

The Leisure Outlook - UK

“The Easter heatwave provided a boost to the pub sector as more people headed out for food and drinks in casual, outdoor settings. However young people showed a desire to strike a balance between health and indulgence, as many kept up regular exercise routines.”

– Paul Davies, Category Director ...

Pub Visiting - UK

“Locally sourced food and drink attracts strong consumer interest and offers a viable means for pubs/bars to appeal beyond price. Flagging up that certain meal components or drinks are sourced locally would also help to strengthen the idea of pubs as supporting the local economy, evoking a feel-good factor ...

Cordials and Squashes - UK

“The 2018 summer heatwave was a boon for cordials and squashes that saw growth return following five years of decline. However, sales in this traditionally family-oriented category have also been lifted by the strong performance of new adult-oriented options that offer more sophisticated flavour profiles. Meanwhile, British fruit can be ...
