

June 2017

Car Insurance - Ireland

"Having experienced almost explosive growth over the past couple of years as a result of very significant price increases, the private car insurance market is in line for more moderate year-on-year growth over the coming years. For the most part, growth in the sector will stem from increased activity in ...