Consumers and the Economic Outlook - Quarterly Update - UK

“People are still wary about the potential impact of Brexit – particularly when it comes to the cost of living. But people seem able to separate these macro-economic concerns from their own personal financial situation. Unemployment remains at record lows, and while average wages are still increasingly more slowly than ...

Customer Journey for the Home - UK

“Some 13 million households bought furniture in the last twelve months and over half of these bought for the living room, while a similar number bought for bedrooms. They display a wide range of browsing and shopping habits, often gathering ideas online to shape their ideas and choices, then making ...

Nursery and Baby Equipment Retailing - UK

“The nursery and baby equipment market has benefited from many successful years of growth, but the sector is now entering more challenging times. It is more important than ever, in such a highly fragmented market, for retailers and brands to stand out by continuing to innovate and have a strong ...

Electrical Goods Retailing - UK

“Spending on electricals held up well in 2017 despite increased pressure on consumers’ finances. However, it was again the non-specialists that were the driver, particularly those with a strong presence online as spending increasingly moves to online channels. Demand is equally being driven by high levels of promotional activity, which ...

Consumer Trends, Attitudes and Spending Habits for the Home - UK

“In 2017, spending remained strong on buying for the home in the UK, despite growing uncertainty about the economy. But in the five years from 2017-22 market growth will slow, as consumers feel a real squeeze on their personal disposable income. Owner-occupiers and those who say that their finances are ...
