

January 2023

Logistical Services - UK

“2022 has been a challenging year for both freight forwarders and handlers alike, the continuation of issues which affected productivity in 2021 are still relevant such as the HGV driver shortage and the economic turbulence certain sectors have faced. Inflation, partly as a result of the conflict in Ukraine, has ...

December 2022

Food and Drink Packaging - UK

“The focus on sustainability, plastic packaging waste reduction and circularity drives market and product development. This reflects shifts in consumer sentiment towards a greater awareness of sustainability and efforts by food and drink manufacturers and retailers to improve their sustainability credentials. Legislative changes, such as the Plastic Packaging Tax and ...

November 2022

Facilities Management - UK

“The facilities management sector offers a wide range of services, including energy efficiency, to a very broad audience, offering some resilience in the face of potential wider economic disruption. Under such circumstances, its long established raison d’etre of offering cost benefits becomes even more important. At the same time, the ...

Serviced Offices - UK

“Hybrid working policies are the primary driver for increased flexible workspace demand. Economic uncertainty and inflationary pressure also generate demand for serviced offices as companies prioritise cost-effectiveness and agility.

Serviced office providers need to focus on providing quality and amenity-rich spaces as businesses increasingly want a high-quality space where they ...

October 2022

Security Equipment, Access Control and CCTV - UK

“Technological innovation promoting simplicity through providing interoperable products strategically catered to act as solutions to the COVID-19 pandemic has shielded and, in some cases, fostered growth within the industry. Refining and controlling interoperability will further safeguard demand, despite future threats from inflation and a potential recession, as businesses look to ...