

December 2012Household Hard Surface Cleaning and Care Products - UK

“Home hygiene is the top reason for using hard surface cleaners, so antibacterial products will continue to increase their share of the market. Concern about germs also extends to away from the home, so on-the-go disinfectant products for use in the workplace or in public places is an opportunity for ...

November 2012The Laundry Consumer - UK

“Laundry patterns continue to evolve in response to product developments in both appliances and detergents, with a move towards more washing on low temperatures and quicker cycles one of the biggest trends over the last few years. New product marketing will continue to focus on changing the wash patterns of ...

October 2012Air Fresheners - UK

“To take air care products beyond eliminating odours and freshening rooms, future product development should focus on improving air quality and providing health and wellness benefits. This would help take the air care market closer to the health and personal care market through helping to prevent the spread of germs ...

September 2012Toilet Cleaning and Care - UK

“With a reduction in product usage, volumes and value sales, the flush treatment segment of toilet care is in need of reinvigoration. Promoting the importance of such products for continuous toilet cleaning in terms of not just freshening but also keeping the toilet free from germs and stains could convince ...
