Consumer Spending Sentiment - 2H - China

“China’s economic development is facing pressure. On the one hand, there are lingering uncertainties regarding the domestic epidemic situation despite the recent relaxation of restrictive policies, and people’s short-term confidence has not yet rebounded. On the other hand, the international economic environment has also brought a lot of instability to ...

Consumer Spending Sentiment - 1H - China

“The steady recovery of China’s economy was disrupted by the large-scale COVID-19 resurgence in March 2022. Although economic development has been severely challenged, consumers’ financial situation and long-term confidence remain stable. Although the current economic indicators have basically returned to positive in June, the economic recovery in the second half ...
