Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The media and high-profile events have helped to raise awareness regarding the need to make more considered fashion purchases. This has been even more prominent during COVID-19, with many headlines covering how retailers have treated staff during the pandemic. However, with so much confusion regarding what makes a fashion retailer ...

August 2020Footwear Retailing: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The footwear sector picked up in 2019 after a tough 2018. However, the outbreak of COVID-19 in 2020 will have a significant and lasting impact on the sector. The category was previously geared towards the in-store experience, but since lockdown many of the leading retailers have announced significant numbers of ...
