Travel Hub Foodservice - UK

“Having endured an extremely challenging couple of years, UK travel hubs must now contend with the cost-of-living crisis. The threat of commuters seeking cheaper alternatives is driving travel hub foodservices to play on price, but high overheads make this unsustainable.

Providing good value is not always about being the cheapest ...

Attitudes towards Lunch Out-of-home - UK

“Lunchtime foodservice operators’ margins have been squeezed more than ever before having felt the brunt of the pandemic, Brexit, VAT returning to 20% from 1 April 2022 and now unprecedented increases in fuel/energy and ingredients costs. They must also contend with Britons’ preference towards eating lunch at home, resulting ...

Leisure Outlook - UK

“18-24s are now as likely to take part in competitive socialising activities as they are to go to the pub for drinks, highlighting their desire for new and varied activities that provide a sense of adrenaline but don’t necessarily involve consuming alcohol”.

– Paul Davies, Category Director – Leisure, Travel ...

Ethnic Restaurants and Takeaways - UK

“Flexible working practices have resulted in a dispersed consumer base, making it less viable for foodservice operators to rely on earnings from one retail format. Therefore, alternative concepts including street food

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q1 - UK

“Even before the conflict in Ukraine, inflation had become the biggest concern for consumers, brands and the British economy for 2022. Households are set to endure the biggest squeeze on real incomes in decades, markets, dark kitchens and drive-throughs will enable ethnic foodservice brands to expand their catchment areas and make ethnic cuisines ...

and the conflict in Ukraine will only add to existing inflationary pressures. This is seen in ...

Attitudes towards Home Delivery and Takeaway - UK

“The home delivery and takeaway sector is working hard to maintain trading levels and combat the threat posed by inflation. This has included increased use of free delivery offers, extended trading hours to offer breakfast, brunch and lunch takeaways, and adapting propositions to target workers returning to offices.”

February 2022

Leisure Outlook - UK

“The first signs of how inflation will impact the foodservice market are beginning to show. Takeaways remain a popular option with consumers’ substituting evenings out with evenings in, meanwhile those heading out for a meal are favouring full-service restaurants that justify the expense by offering something extra special”.

Menu Trends - UK

“The proportion of flexitarians continues to rise annually, with one in three meat eaters having reduced/limited meat consumption. Fuelled by greater awareness of the benefits of eating less meat, and the current yearning for variety in their diets, the latest phase of vegetarianism is also underway, and therefore one ...
