

January 2021

Supermarket Retailing - Ireland

“COVID-19 has helped to uplift grocery sales value in 2020 as consumers stockpiled and spent more time at home, driving the need for groceries. However, moving forward with increased unemployment and more financial strife, it is likely that consumers will turn more towards value own-label and discounter products to make ...