

March 2021Consumers and Financial Advice - UK

“The coronavirus pandemic has accelerated the technological evolution of the UK advice market. As this digital shift continues to gather momentum, advisers are benefiting from more efficient and regular contact with clients. Additionally, new opportunities are emerging to attract new audiences, including those traditionally under-served or hard to reach, through ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“GDP grew by 1.0% in the final quarter of the year as the economy bounced back more strongly than in expected in December, following the dip in November caused by the second lockdown of England and other lockdowns and restrictions in various parts of the country. Despite this slight ...

February 2021Consumers and Saving - UK

“Much of the extra saving during the pandemic has been accidental, forced by the conditions rather than choice. It is therefore understandable that many will be keen to enjoy spending this money when the situation allows. Cancelled plans, missed family occasions and significant pent-up demand for more normal activities will ...
