

November 2021Changing Face of the High Street -
UK

“In-store shopping was under pressure prior to COVID-19 and the pandemic has only served to intensify this. The loss of multiple high street staples will leave deep scars and heightened online use will, understandably, make more retailers reticent to take on additional space. On top of this changing working habits ...

Seasonal Shopping (Spring/Summer) - UK

“Spending for spring/summer seasonal events in 2021 returned to growth despite the pandemic impacting celebrations for a second year running. During the pandemic, seasonal events have become more meaningful, with consumers relying on digital and online tools to stay connected during lockdowns. This year the way consumers shopped for ...
