The Private Label Food Consumer - UK

“Own-label is largely absent in single-serve chocolate products, meaning that it is missing out on impulse buying for on-the-go and out-of-home occasions – a key snacking occasion – indicating this as a potential area for own-label growth.”

– Emma Clifford, Senior Food Analyst

Supermarkets: More Than Just Food Retailing - UK

“Aldi and Lidl are wedded to the smaller-store, limited range, largely-own-brand offer. So there is limited scope for them to cater to shopper demand for a wider range or for more branded lines – and so to capture more main-shop customers.”

– John Mercer, European Retail Analyst

Red Meat - UK

“Cost remains a barrier for the red meat market, creating growth opportunities for cheaper cuts. However, over half of youngsters say that uncertainty about how to cook cheaper cuts puts them off buying them. Positioning cheaper cuts as an economical and ethical choice, along with educating the consumer as to ...

Poultry - UK

“Social media offers a potential channel for operators to convey the high standards of living of their poultry, eg through video footage. Elements of gamification, which

Fish and Shellfish - UK

“Whilst seafood operators have done much to ensure their sourcing is responsible and there is a healthy innovation pipeline, the two-a-week recommendation continues to be a key opportunity operators are yet to fully realise.”

– Richard Ford, Senior Food and Drink Analyst

Consumers and the Economic Outlook: Quarterly Update - UK

“The revival in confidence has stalled. Although the economy is picking up speed, the population as a whole isn't feeling the benefit of the recovery. People are as likely to say that they feel worse off than they did a year ago as they are to say that their finances ...

Cheese - UK

“The ending of milk quotas post-2015 should bring challenges and opportunities for the market, particularly for British brands. Meanwhile, openness to new formats

Consumer Attitudes Towards Lunch Out-of-Home - UK

“Despite improvements in the UK economy, household budgets remain squeezed and therefore consumers are still cautious. The onus is thus on operators to proactively provide consumers with additional reasons to visit their venues more frequently and/or increase spend per head when they do visit.”
