News Media - US

"News media is an integral component of everyday life for most consumers. A lack of trust and a plethora of options have made it difficult for the average news consumer to figure out what is real and whom to trust in a continuously fragmenting market. As news media becomes more ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q3: A Look at Both Sides - US

"A lot of coverage has been given to the growing divide between political views in the US. While there may be cultural and moral differences that cause fundamental shifts in beliefs, some underlying concerns, specifically financial ones, are more similar than different. However, if a consumer's personal belief system aligns ...

Online Grocery Retailing - US

"Online grocery sales remain only a small portion of total US grocery sales, but are growing rapidly, more than doubling over the past five years. That growth is likely to continue as more young adults take on grocery shopping responsibility and as retailers continue to strengthen and expand grocery delivery ...

Digital Trends (Consumer) - US

"Consumers have accepted the vital role that technology plays in their daily lives. Media preferences dictate how new technology is used and where people spend most of their time online. New software will likely focus on speed and reliability rather than "wow" factor to sustain long-term engagement."

Mobile Network Providers - US

The majority of the mobile telecommunications market consists of smartphone owners, and consumers are using more data every day. While pricing is the most important factor behind network choice, consumers are increasingly looking for unlimited plans. Network coverage and reliability are top considerations, but trust is a growing concern, especially ...
