ISAs - UK

“Three quarters of UK savers and investors expect to have less money to put towards their savings and investments due to the rising cost of living. With interest rates now moving upwards, cash ISA providers should take the opportunity to grow their share of retail balances by offering more competitive ...

Retirement Planning - UK

“The retirement planning environment has so far held up well despite the challenges that the COVID-19 pandemic has placed on the market. Cost of living pressures pose a new challenge for the industry. With inflationary pressures expected to persist throughout 2022 and into 2023, consumers face tough decisions. More people ...

Saving and Investing for Children - UK

“The children’s savings and investment market is set to be impacted heavily by the rising cost of living. Lower-income households, with less disposable income, will struggle to contribute to children’s savings on top of paying out for essentials. Providers should focus on accessibility for all, by removing fees for opening ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q1 - UK

“Even before the conflict in Ukraine, inflation had become the biggest concern for consumers, brands and the British economy for 2022. Households are set to endure the biggest squeeze on real incomes in decades, and the conflict in Ukraine will only add to existing inflationary pressures. This is seen in ...

Deposit and Savings Accounts - UK

“The savings market will be hit by rising inflation in 2022 as rising energy bills and other costs squeeze consumers’ budgets and ability to save, particularly in lower-income households. Savings platforms offer a key opportunity to increase competition in the retail savings market by giving consumers sight of the most ...
