Feminine Hygiene and Sanitary Protection Products - US

Growth of the overall feminine care products market has been marginal in recent years, as it faces several challenges. Women are having fewer, lighter periods, contributing to declining usage of sanitary protection, specifically tampons. However, an aging population and increased interest in cleansing products bodes well for the adult incontinence ...

Feminine Hygiene and Sanitary Protection Products - UK

“The feminine hygiene and sanitary protection category has grown slowly and steadily in recent years, driven by the feminine hygiene and incontinence sectors. The category has seen a rise in recorded advertising expenditure, with recent campaigns focusing on empowerment as a theme, whilst NPDP has also been increased, contributing to ...

Babies' and Children's Personal Care Products, Nappies and Wipes - UK

“The babies’ and children’s nappies and wipes market continues to see sales declines as parents switch to discounters for cheaper purchases. While branded innovation returns in 2015, the slowing birth rate means the market is not expected to return to growth. Babies’ and children’s personal care products have fared better ...

Beauty Retailing - Ireland

“The beauty retailing sector is a fairly resilient market in Ireland given that most beauty products are deemed as daily essentials. However, the changing shopping habits of consumers has seen many venturing into discounters and online to avail of discounted prices that allow them to remain on trend without breaking ...

Drug Store Retailing - US

The Beauty Consumer - US

“The beauty category showed positive growth from 2010-15 and is projected to see continued gains. Looking forward, key demographic groups include Millennials and Hispanics. Nurturing and expanding the Beauty Enthusiasts segment will also be important for product and market growth. Capitalizing on Enthusiasts’ interest in experimentation, trends, free samples, and ...

Marketing to Young Adults - UK

“Whilst it may be possible to buy the attention of young adults in the short run, brands looking to foster long lasting relationships will need to look beyond price promotions and discounting. Hiring and rental services present a strong option for brands looking to engage with young adults, offering the ...

OTC Pediatrics - US

Illness is prevalent among children, as 90% of children younger than 12 experienced some type of ailment in the past year. Their weaker immune system combined with opportunities for interaction and germ spreading makes them especially susceptible to illness. The OTC (over-the-counter) pediatrics market has continued to grow after a ...

Soap, Bath and Shower Products - US

Beauty and Personal Care - International

"The drug store market has expanded well beyond traditional drug stores to include other channels such as mass merchandisers, supermarkets, and warehouse clubs as well as mail order options that also fulfil consumers' drug store needs."

"When adjusted for inflation, total market sales in the soap, bath, and shower products market have remained relatively flat, though the inclusion of more premium benefits have helped boost sales of liquid body washes and bath products. Going forward, continued launches of products offering premium benefits, as well as product ...

Soap, Bath and Shower Products - UK

"The SBS (soap, bath and shower) market, once plagued by consumer reliance on price promotions and special offers, continues to fluctuate as consumers now trade down on daily essentials in order to treat themselves with more luxurious occasional-use items such as detox bath salts. In 2016 in-shower treatments present an ...

First Aid - UK

"The first aid category has shown a dip in value in 2015, driven by a decline in launch activity as well as reduced investment in recorded advertising spend. However with high interest in innovations in plasters/bandages, and current research showing the potential for smart bandages in the near future ...
