Luxury Goods Retailing - International

This report differs from other Mintel retail reports in the sense that it looks primarily at companies that are involved in design, manufacturing and distribution, rather than pure retail. The turnover for these companies and therefore our market size includes elements of retail turnover, wholesale sales to franchisees ...

E-commerce - Europe

This report series covers the five leading economies of Western Europe. In part because e-commerce activities cover a variety of sectors, detailed information, even on the largest economies, is hard to come by. While educated estimates can be made for these larger markets, in many other parts of Europe e-commerce ...
