B2B Economic Outlook - UK

“Despite the uncertainties surrounding Brexit, the UK economy has only slowed to equate to the growth of the Euro-area, and the Bank of England still anticipates stronger growth than the Euro-area over the next three years. The Brexit-related uncertainties continue, and are now potentially exacerbated by a General Election. They ...

Mechanical and Electrical Engineering - UK

“Continued uncertainties over Brexit are clearly disrupting the M&E sector, but there remain strong prospects, particularly in infrastructure and the refurbishment of data centres. The pending general election is also expected to see further promises of spending for the health and education sectors from all parties.”

– Terry Leggett ...

B2B Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK economy continues to show signs of slowdown, with GDP reversing slightly as a no-deal Brexit appears increasingly likely. Brexit-related uncertainty continues to hold back investment and confidence, but have so far only materialised as slower growth.

A no-deal Brexit is expected to have a major impact on the ...

B2B Economic Outlook - UK

“The government has said that it is committed to a “green” Brexit and to maintaining environmental standards. The government is also expected to remain committed to the EU’s renewables generation targets and carbon emission reduction targets. Therefore energy and environmental policy is unlikely to change post-Brexit. That means it will ...

Cars and Commercial Vehicles - UK

“The cars and commercial vehicles market contracted for a second year in 2018 amid a cocktail of challenges, both internal and external to the industry. Brexit headwinds and the exodus from diesel continue to undermine domestic sales, while production remains constrained by weakening global markets.

Nonetheless, there remain some beacons ...

B2B Economic Outlook - UK

“With time running out for the government and the EU to agree to a deal, the uncertain environment has led to many companies holding back on risky investments to ensure that their short-term objectives are able to be achieved alongside any adverse market impacts that follow Brexit.“

– Lewis ...
