Equity Investing - UK

“2017 was a bumper year for the equity investing market, but this is unlikely to be repeated in 2018, with Brexit looming. Competitive pressures are growing, even among the once-niche online platform providers, and the flow of new customers is inhibited by low levels of investable assets. Ethical and micro-investing ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - Quarterly Update - UK

“Consumers continue to worry about the impact Brexit will have on the UK economy. But people are still focussing much more on their own financial situations, which are currently in a pretty healthy state. The base rate rise will make it harder for some, but the general outlook is positive ...

Children's Attitudes towards Saving - UK

“Despite parents' commitment to save, a decade of low interest rates, regulatory interventions and limited developments in the market has reduced the appeal of child-specific products. The recent rate rise and digital innovations mean there are now plenty of opportunities for providers to shake things up and offer something different ...
