Home Insurance - UK

“In terms of premium income, the domestic home insurance market has stagnated over the past decade. Technological-driven innovation is needed to achieve real growth potential and to enable insurers to better respond to changing consumer needs in the digital era, as well as shifting demographics and tenure patterns.”

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“Brexit has been delayed again. The public faces a Christmas general election. And the economy narrowly avoided a recession in September. It is no wonder, then, that consumer confidence has taken a hit. However, financial well-being is holding up and the vast majority of people think they’ll be OK in ...

Price Comparison Sites in General Insurance - UK

“Price comparison websites play a significant role in the UK insurance market and have done so since their inception more than 15 years ago. However, they have also had a part in price-focused propositions that have resulted in dual-pricing practices and the so-called ‘loyalty penalty’, which affect vulnerable consumers the ...

Private Medical Insurance - UK

“The PMI market remains over reliant on corporate policies, with individual policies declining for a number of years. Health and wellbeing initiatives and the rewards associated with this have been successful in increasing engagement, particularly among younger consumers. Mental health cover is a welcome addition to the market and offering ...
