

December 2021*Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“Rising inflation and concerns about stock shortages have shaken consumers’ sense of financial wellbeing and confidence for the coming year. It is important to place the falls seen on these measures in October in context, however: the vast majority of consumers remain fairly upbeat.

October 2021*Brand Overview: Retail - UK

“The coronavirus outbreak and related challenges such as store closures and social distancing measures urged both retailers and consumers to approach shopping with new eyes. While the convenience of ecommerce will continue to resonate with consumers in the longer run, the in-store shopping experience will again be in the spotlight ...

September 2021*Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The end of social distancing and the associated boost to retail, leisure and entertainment spend brought about an immediate rebound in economic activity, and GDP grew by 4.8% in Q2 2021. Consumers have also responded positively, with Mintel’s current financial wellbeing and financial confidence trackers reaching new record-highs in ...

Brand Overview: Finance - UK

“The pandemic will create more interest and engagement with personal finances, but we are yet to see that translate into an intention to switch provider in search of better deals. COVID-19 therefore seems unlikely to create a seismic shift in the consumer inertia that tends to pervade the financial services ...

July 2021*Retail Payment Options - UK

“It has been a transformative year for the payments sector with the pandemic acting as a catalyst to regulatory, technological and behavioural change. Cash use has plummeted, contactless payments have surged, and consumers have made use of ‘buy now, pay later’ (BNPL) as shopping moved online. While cards now dominate ...

Brand Overview: Drink - UK

“Consumer concerns around COVID-19 are beginning to show signs of decline, but there will be a continued drive towards health and wellbeing from consumers. In the short term this will continue to be related to products that people hope will support their immune system, but over the longer term the ...
