

May 2006

PC Retailing - Ireland

Mintel's last report on computer retailing was written as part of the UK market intelligence series and was published in August 2005. Even within this small period of time there have been significant developments in the PC retailing market. The most noticeable development in the past few years has been ...

March 2006

Home Shopping - Ireland

About the market: