Credit Cards - UK

“After a decline during the pandemic, credit card lending has rebounded strongly as customers feel the impact of the cost-of-living crisis. Growth will continue as consumers seek new lines of credit and access to attractive interest-free balance transfers. Use is also high amongst those in healthy financial situations, where credit ...

Buy Now, Pay Later Financing - UK

“The buy now, pay later financing market has grown substantially, especially since the onset of the pandemic and the growth in online shopping. The market offers a consumer-centric and flexible alternative way to shop. The cost of living crisis and growing pressure on household finances will open up the benefits ...

Car Finance - UK

“Despite experiencing a strong recovery from the pandemic in value terms in 2021, the car finance market faces a challenging 2022. Supply chain issues and inflationary pressures continue to disrupt the automotive sector and the rising cost of living is placing household finances under pressure. In this climate, providers will ...

Mortgage Advice - UK

“After benefiting from a surge in mortgage lending activity in 2021, operating conditions have become more challenging for mortgage advisers in 2022. High inflation is squeezing household incomes and causing lenders to be more cautious about lending. While housing market activity will not be as robust in the near term ...

Mortgages - UK

“2021 was the strongest year for mortgage lending since the financial crisis, but 2022 is set to be more challenging. The rising cost of living is already feeding through into lower consumer confidence, which will increase reluctance to commit to major financial decisions, including buying or moving a house. Increases ...

Travel Money - UK

“Demand for travel money is set to soar this year as people take overseas holidays again in greater numbers. However, we won't see an immediate return to pre-pandemic levels. This is partly because of lingering COVID concerns and, more pertinently, the fact that the UK is facing one of the ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q1 - UK

“Even before the conflict in Ukraine, inflation had become the biggest concern for consumers, brands and the British economy for 2022. Households are set to endure the biggest squeeze on real incomes in decades, and the conflict in Ukraine will only add to existing inflationary pressures. This is seen in ...
