

December 2013Vitamins, Minerals and Supplements - US

“While vitamin sales are robust, there are a few factors that could contribute to a decline in the category. As consumers continue to eat a healthier diet, the need for a separate supplement could be eliminated. Additionally, negative press about the quality and necessity of vitamins could erode usage and ...

First Aid - US

“The first aid market is expected to grow steadily into 2018. To accelerate market growth, companies should focus on the needs of aging consumers, better engage with low-product usage groups like Blacks and Hispanics, and encourage consumers to be more prepared to treat injuries, especially on-the-go.”

November 2013Gastrointestinal Remedies - US

“Despite the prevalence of gastrointestinal issues, the market of branded gastrointestinal remedies is up against several challenges. Sales of private label brands are eroding national brand sales, and consumers are taking a more proactive approach to their health. Creating a relationship with consumers could help to increase brand loyalty and ...

October 2013Marketing Health to Women - US

“Women seek solutions to live a healthy life, indicating a need for products that help them to be proactive about their healthcare. Education among key consumer groups, such as lower income as well as Black and Hispanic women will be imperative, especially as implications from the PPACA roll out.”
