

B2B: Healthcare
- UK

December 2022

Children's Social Care - UK

“With the number of children in care expected to reach 100,000 by 2025 in England alone, the systemic problems causing this rise need to be tackled otherwise the care burden for councils, government, and society will just continue to increase. Recommendations laid out in the recent Independent Review and ...